

HOPE IS REAL

“Pain is real and so is hope”

Connect

1. Do you sometime feel a sense of loss and helplessness?
2. Have there been times when you feel that there is little hope left when you are going through difficult situations in life?
3. What gives you hope? And what, if anything, makes you question hope?

Hebrews 6:17-20

GODS UNCHANGING PROMISE

So when God wanted to make the unchanging nature of His purpose very clear to the heirs of the promise, He guaranteed it with an oath. Thus by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be strongly encouraged.

We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and steadfast. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where Jesus our forerunner has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.

Why was the anchor used to describe the hope we have in Christ ?

What does hope have to do with the sanctuary behind the curtain?

Where do you seek refuge when you are troubled or lonely?

Now What

1. What is your need today? Are you putting your trust in God to provide for you?
2. Where should your security be anchored on.
3. Where is your real sanctuary, the place where you anchor your hope?

Prayer

Heavenly father, I am your humble servant, I come before you today in need of hope. There are times when I feel helpless, There are times when I feel weak. I pray for hope. I need hope for a better future. I need hope for a better life. I need hope for love and kindness.

Lord help me to remember that you have a plan for my life , as you have promised, and as you want it to be. Help me to walk in your light, and live my life in faith and anchor my hope in your unchanging promise of life eternal in Christ Jesus.

Thank you that my hope rests in you, in Jesus name, Amen.
